CHICAGO COWBOY

JAMIAH DENZEL ROGERS

Blues-rock fire. South Side stories. A frontman built for the room and the record.

THE ARTIST

NOT A REVIVAL. A LIVE WIRE.

Jamiah Denzel Rogers was behind the drums at three and learning guitar by seven. Church, school, and his father's band gave him the foundation; Chicago gave him the friction. As JDR, he turns that foundation into something immediate - blues at the center, with rock, funk, soul, reggae, and R&B moving through it.

THE JDR DIFFERENCE

Guitar, voice, rhythm, movement. JDR moves through the music - singing, bending the guitar, directing the band, and closing the distance between stage and audience.

IDENTITY

JDR IS THE ARTIST.

IAmJDR is the official website and brand identity. On every stage and record, the name is JDR.

THE LIVE PROPOSITION

WHEN JDR HITS, THE ROOM MOVES.

The physical charge of rock meets the instinct and truth of blues. Every set is built around contact: the pull of a riff, the crack of the rhythm section, the vocal that reaches the back wall, and the moment the audience stops watching and starts participating.

FOR BUYERS / PRESENTERS / PARTNERS

BOOK THE MOMENT, NOT JUST THE SLOT.

JDR is positioned for rooms that want a true frontman - an artist with a strong visual identity, original music, Chicago credibility, and the live force to hold a festival field, club, cultural stage, or special experience.

THE SOUND

Blues-rock with funk, soul, reggae, and R&B; in the bloodstream.

THE SHOW

Voice, guitar, movement, band command, and direct audience connection.

THE STORY

A Chicago-rooted Delmark artist entering the Chicago Cowboy era.
